The Cowboy Roster

In 1881 Deputy U.S. Marshal Joseph W. Evans estimated the number of Cowboys at “about 380,” a figure that is much too high. A year later Virgil Earp said that they numbered “nearly 200,” which is probably closer to the truth. Although many of the Cowboys have been lost to history, at least eighty-one are identified by name in contemporary newspapers, correspondence, and court records. They are as follows:

Jerry Ackerson

Simon Acosta

Andy Ames
