ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It really is true what they say about second books, they're so much harder to write than the first one! This was true for This Cursed Crown for many reasons, not helped of course by the pandemic that we've all been dealing with since 2020. I ended up restarting the entire book more than once and still worried right up until this last draft that I might not have got it right for these characters who are so close to my heart.

But I can happily say now that I have made it through book two, and that is largely thanks to so, so many people behind the scenes.

The first thank-you has to go to my wonderful editor, Connolly Bottum, who stuck with me all through the difficulty of these drafts and still somehow believed in me and this story. Thank you as well to everyone at Inkyard Press for all your amazing work: especially Bess Brasswell for all your support, Brittany Mitchell for your amazing marketing, Laura Gianino, the most wonderful publicist, Olivia Valcarce for your enthusiasm and fantastic work on the final steps, and Jerri Gallagher for your wonderful copyediting once again. Thank you as well to Kathleen Oudit for the beautiful cover direction and Marisa Aragon Ware for the absolutely stunning illustration. You really outdid yourself with this one!

Thank you so much to the team at New Leaf, who have also worked so tirelessly, helping me through all the difficulty of this book. Firstly, to my agent, Patrice Caldwell, who has been an amazing champion through this, as well as her wonderful assistant Trinica Sampson. And to everyone else at New Leaf: Veronica Grijalva, Victoria Henderson, Kate Sullivan and Meredith Barnes.

Thank you as well to the team at Bookends who first helped me through this book deal and ensured this duology was published: Natascha Morris, Naomi Davis and James McGowan.

Huge thank-you to Katie Passerotti for reading every incoherent draft of this book and talking me through all the nervous breakdowns and fears that I would never finish it—I seriously couldn’t have done this without you. To Tara Gilbert for all your late-night texts and encouragement. And to all my other writer friends who helped me through: Tiffany Lea Elmer, Briston Brooks, Tamara Mahmood Hayes, Zabé Ellor, Delara Adams, Anayib Figueroa, Peyton Austin and Kianna Shore. (You can thank her for Chapter Twenty!)

I want to also give a special thank-you to all the wonderful people who supported These Feathered Flames and really helped it find its readers during such a strange time: to all the booksellers, librarians, teachers, bloggers and online book people, I can’t tell you how much I appreciate all your work! A special shout-out to Birdie (@birdienotabird), Chloe (@chloetheelvenwarrior), Landice (@manicfemme), Diana (@chasingchapters), Jacob (@a.veryqueerbookclub), Rachel (@bookworm_panda), Theresa (@libraryofsappho), Cait (@caitsbooks), Jaysen (@ezee-cat) and Dalton (@cityveinlights) for helping to reveal the cover for This Cursed Crown—you’re all so amazing, thank you!

Thank you of course to my family who helped me through all of this, especially to my mum and my sister Clemmie for helping me reach this finish line—and to my grandfather for very quickly reading a draft of this book to give me notes! Also to Lila Victor, surrogate sister, for the bookmark tassels of course.

There's always a fear that I've forgotten someone in the acknowledgments, and so the final thank-you to everyone reading this book—the fact that you've picked it up and stuck with Asya and Izaveta through this all means the world to me!
